IMPORTANT NEWS QUICKLY TOLD

Happenings In Various Sections Of Old Virginia

NEWS ITEMS FOR OUR READERS

Norfolk.—Two inmates of the city jail, one a negro sentenced to die in the electric chair, and another recently sentenced to serve 20 years in the pen, contributed $14.34 to the 1925 community chest.

Lynchburg.—Only seven veterans of the Elks' National Home at Bedford remained in the hospital as a result of the cider poisoning trouble experienced there November 10, which caused the death of eleven of the residents of the home. All of the men now are thought to be doing well and two nurses have been released.

Lynchburg.—The Boy Scout Council here has invited C. B. Woodhead, of Norfolk, to come here January 1 to become scout executive, succeeding A. J. Himmelsbach, who resigned recently to go into business in Philadelphia. Mr. Woodhead has accepted the call. Mr. Woodhead met in conference here with the Lynchburg Council.

Danville.—Henry Ford, assistant cashier of the defunct State Bank of Virginia, which was looted of more than $200,000, was sentenced to serve four years in the State penitentiary at Halifax by Judge H. B. Gregory, of Roanoke. He had pleaded guilty some months ago to making false entires, but sentence was deferred.

Danville.—A message received from Martinsville brought word of the death of Charles Hylton and Folsom Deans, who were instantly killed on the Patrick County Highway near Spencer. The two victims with five others were thrown out of the overturning truck in such a way that both were crushed to death by its weight. None of the other five were injured.

Danville.—The Schoolfield Bridge has been declared unsafe by the county authorities, and while it has been closed by the posting of notices, these are being ignored and travel is still proceeding over it. The material for the repairs has been assembled and this is considered an unusually heavy added burden for the structure to carry in its present condition.

Bristol.—Further evidences of greatly improved industrial and business conditions in Southwest Virginia have been manifested in concrete form during the last few days. So marked has been the turn toward improvement that business men here believe that the coming holiday season will be the most prosperous this region has known in three years.

Danville.—Two Danville police officers operating in Martinsville with two county officers have arrested Roland Dix, who is being held in connection with the recent abduction of two men by an armed party who were forced to give $125 to their captors. The names of other men have also been secured and further arrests are pending. The abductors claimed that the two men they seized were responsible for the theft of liquor.

Charlottesville.—Dr. E. W. Magruder, of Charlottesville, was named head of the Clan MacGregor reunion held near Washington, D. C. The session lasted two days and was called by the Scotch descendants living in and near Washington. Chieftain Magruder states that Dr. J. G. Fernyhough, of Richmond, was selected as scribe; Dr. E. W. Magruder, of Norfolk, editor, and Mrs. J. W. Bukey, of Fairfax, Va., as registrar.

Pulaski.—The town of Draper was incorporated in an order entered in the Circuit Court of Pulaski county, by Judge A. A. Campbell, on petition of the requisite number of electors living within the bounds as prescribed in the petition. The opposition of the Norfolk and Western and of certain resident was overruled by the court though the boundaries as outlined were reduced in an instance, where they overlapped both sides of the railroad, affecting no other property. Judge Campbell ordered a special election to be held January 2, 1925, for the purpose of electing a Mayor and four Councilmen to serve until the regular State and municipal elections. It was the order of the court that the county road passing through the town be maintained by the county as heretofore.

Lynchburg.—Henry P. Adams, formerly city treasurer of Lynchburg for a number of years and a well-known coal operator, died at his home in Amherst County.

Danville.—The Town Council of Martinsville has adopted an ordinance, effective January 1, requiring the owners of all motor cars to provide themselves with liability insurance. The ordinance requires a minimum amount of $5,000 for damage to the person and $1,500 for damage to property.

Richmond.—The Hopewell post-office is to occupy new quarters about January 1, it is said. The Post-Office Department has accepted the proposal of Marvin Southay to lease new quarters, at 30 Broadway, for ten years from January 1, or the date of occupancy, at an annual rental of $1,800. It is planned to vacate the old post-office station on Broadway, near Woodland street, about January 1, it is said. The rental on the old quarters is $1,500 a year.

Richmond.—Purchase by the government of the town of Quantico, Va., site of the great Marine Corps base, was recommended by Major-General John A. Lejeune, commandant of the corps, in his annual report. Continuation of the present dual control of the town, he said, "created conditions which are highly undesirable and which affect adversely the morale of the command." Purchase of a flying field at Brown Field, Va., also was urged in the report.

Danville.—Signs of a "house-cleaning" at the Danville Post-Office are manifest following a series of changes. A large quantity of office furniture has been consigned to the cellar by Post-Office Inspector Walter Sommers. The interior of the workroom has been rearranged and the force has been dealt with likewise. A new stamp window has been opened, relieving congestion long complained of. The opening of the office is a half hour earlier and the closing a half hour later than before.

Luray.—While there is a well-defined movement on the part of a group of farmers of Page county in the section of the Blue Ridge south of Front Royal to antagonize the proposal for a new national park in Northern Virginia, on account of their owning valuable pasture lands, it is not believed that the opposition will count for much. Progressive farmers see in the project the circulation of millions of dollars in their midst this section is selected for the national park. The full committee of engineers and park commissioners will go over the area the third time this week, and their report will be made known at the next session of Congress.

Ashland.—The recently appointed Hanover county Board of Public Welfare met here where Judge B. Morgan Shepherd, of the Juvenile and Domestic Relations Court, presided and announced the plans for the effectiveness of the work in the county. Harry W. Sisserman, of Ashland, is probation officer for this court. At the meeting of the entire board, Mrs. T. M. Fuller, of Ellerson, was named as chairman, while Mrs. Luther P. Hartsook, of Ashland, was selected secretary. The membership is made up of Mrs. J. A. Wright, Doswell; Mrs. T. M. Pupper, Ellerson; Mrs. J. G. Hughes, Ashland; S. W. Chenoy, Beaver Dam; Mrs Luther P. Hartsook, Ashland; N. R. Wheat, Atlee, and Richmond Winston, Hanover Courthouse.

Danville.—The country home of City Health Officer R. W. Garnett, near Dealgn, was totally destroyed by fire. Dr. Garnett, in a frantic effort to control the blaze, was burned about the face, arms and hands and was treated for his injuries by Dr. L. L. Vann, who lives a mile away and who was attracted by the flames. The children of the household had taken baths in the bathroom heated by an oil stove. Dr. Garnett happened to enter the room and found it on fire. He first removed his wife and children and then returned and fought the blaze single-handed. There was no water available and the wind soon swept the flames through the two-story building. Neighbors were successful in saving much of the furniture from the lower floors, but the home itself is a complete loss.

Richmond.—Tentative allocations of road construction funds for 1925 totaling $4,640,000 were announced by Chairman H. G. Shirley, of the State Highway Commission. The sum allocated represents the total estimated revenue for new construction, including the sum of $1,000,000 which will be used to close gaps in the State highway system by the arbitrary allocation of funds in the eight districts. Estimating the cost of road construction at $25,000 a mile for all types, including soil and gravel roads, Virginia will build 184 miles of highway in 1926, according to Mr. Shirley. There are 2,000 miles yet to be built in the State highway system, as it exists to-day, so the time needed to complete the system, based on the estimated revenues for this year, would be ten years and four months. Mr. Shirley stated that he expected increases in the gas, tax, which would clip two years from this estimate and enable him to complete the 2,000 miles in eight years.

Lynchburg.—City Council here accepted the deed of the Equitable Trust Company, of New York, at $452,416.85, for $450,000 school and improvement 4½ thirty-four-year bonds. There were fifteen bidders, prices ranging from $96.21 to $100.337.

Luray.—The Board of Supervisors of this county has just passed an ordinance shortening the hunting season to the period from November 1 to December 25. The action of the supervisors was upon the petition of 100 voters and sportsmen.

But It Can't Be Done

Sunday School Lesson

Lesson for December 7

THE MAN BORN BLIND

LESSON TEXT—John 9:1-41.
GOLDEN TEXT—One thing I know, that whereas I was blind now I see.—John 9:25.
PRIMARY TOPIC—Jesus Opens a Blind Man's Eyes.
JUNIOR TOPIC—Jesus Heals a Man Who Is Blind.
INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOPIC—Loyalty to Our Savior.
YOUNG PEOPLE AND ADULT TOPIC—Difficulties and Rewards of Confessing Christ.

I. Working the Works of God While It Is Day (vv. 1-5).

1. The Disciples' Problem (vv. 1, 2). In their minds all affliction, negative and positive, was God's retribution for sin. Therefore they argued that this man's blindness proved sin. They recognized, too, that the effect of sin is sometimes hereditary. This they no doubt inferred from the second commandment (Ex. 20:5). The implication is that they held the view that men have a pre-existence, and that suffering in this life may be the result of sins committed in that pre-existent state.

2. The Lord's Answer (vv. 3-5). The Lord avers that in this case there is neither sin on the man's part, nor that of his parents, but that it was an occasion for the display of the works of God, and that He had come to execute the will of God, as long as the night comes when no man can work.

II. The Man's Eyes Opened (vv. 6, 7).

Observe that the means used in this miracle were little less than foolish in themselves. How ifly adapted naturally would a plaster of mud be to apply to the eye, the most delicate and sensitive of all the organs of the body. What is more to be avoided than sand in touch with the eye? The object must have been to teach this man the utter inadequacy of the means to the accomplishment of the end that he might be caused to look from the means to the one who used them, that he might be convinced that the power was of God. Then, too, the washing in the pool would teach him the absolute necessity of immediate and explicit obedience in order to enjoy God's blessings.

III. The Man's Testimony (vv. 15-38).

In his testimony we have a fine example of the development of faith. The opening of this man's eyes aroused industry among his neighbors. When a man's spiritual eyes are opened there will be a stir among his friends.

1. He testifies to his personal identity (v. 9). This was very easy. His self-consciousness enabled him to know that he was the same man who was born blind.

2. He testifies as to how it was done (vv. 11, 15). So definite was his experience that he was able to tell just how it was done.

3. He testifies that the One who opened his eyes was a prophet (v. 17).

4. He testifies that this healer was no doubt sent of God (vv. 30-33), and is the greatest worker of miracles since the world began.

5. Finally, he worships Him as the Son of God.

IV. The Results of His Confession.

1. As to the people, they were divided in sentiment. Some believed He was from God because of His works; others that He was a sinner because He did His work on the Sabbath day.

2. As to the man, they cast him out. But being cast out by men he found himself in the arms of Jesus. He is led on to a deeper faith. He first saw Him as a miracle worker, then as a prophet, and finally as the Son of God, and when he perceived Him to be the Son of God he worshiped Him.

The whole lesson may be viewed from three angles:

1. As an acted parable of the life that issues in faith in Christ, an illustration of the spiritual sphere in terms of the physical sphere.

2. Testimony to the Deity of our Lord. This testimony is threefold:

(a) The miracle itself, an unheard-of work, that a man born blind should receive his sight; (b) the unwilling admissions of the enemies themselves who made a public and official investigation; (c) the testimony of the man himself and that of his parents.

3. An illuminating example of faith's development.

True Freedom

True freedom has to do with the spiritual part of man, with that principle in him through which he is related to God. That can be free even though the body be loaded with chains as it was so with St. Paul, as with all other good and great men.

Faith

Faith in the holiness of God is the first uplifting force in religion. There is hope for the greatest sinner who can see the immaculate purity of God in contrast with his own sins. The vision of the sinless One reveals to us the sinfulness of our sins.—Christian Standard.

In the Love of God

You must grow in the love of God by means of, the root, rather than the branches.

HIXBURG

Mr. Editor I am being thanked for the news column in your paper by a reader who now lives under the warm skies of the Western coast and it may be that the news item that those once Appomattox residents enjoyed reading was contributed by your assistant correspondent. So I am having you in this way divide the thanks which I so much appreciate.

I am again shipping potato onion seed to West Virginia having received an order for five bushels of sets The next party wanting as many will come out lacking, as I have about two bushels left.

Some our neighbors had the luck to kill two fine turkeys last week and the writer being an expert at carving was called on to display his skill on one of those big birds, which I did exceeding the expectations of the hostess having made thirty-seven slices of half the white meat of one side and did not miss a point in dissecting the wing and leg on the same side. Edwin Fore and Capt. Covington say the way to kill turkeys is by fire an automobile, but they let one crippled one get away.

In last week's issue I made mention of the sale of the Farmers lime plant at Riverside. This property was formerly known as the Calcium Phosphate & Fertilizer Corporation and was bought in by Messrs. Swan, Coleman, Scott, Martin, Blair and others and will be re-organized on the 18th instant and those contributing to the repurchasing of same will receive their stock certificates of holding soon after that date and the new company will commence soon, and with the energy of the new management those farmers who have heretofore had to wait for lime marl will be served promptly and at a reasonable price.

The inclement weather prevented a large crowd from being present at preaching here last Sunday, but those who did attend had the pleasure of hearing a good sermon and the installation services of the new pastor. Mr Redding, were very impressive. Rev. Clyde Parks has been sick for several days.

Quite a number of our farmers have killed hogs and the housewives are busy with sausage.

PAMPLIN

Union Thanksgiving services were held at the Methodist church and Rev. H. M. Wilson pastor of the Presbyterian church preached the sermon, his subject and remarks were in keeping with the day.

The following young people were home for Thanksgiving: Misses Ruth and Leah James, Marion Duling and Walter Payne from William & Mary College, Misses Mable and Elizabeth Duling, who teach at Drakes Branch and Lynchburg, Mary Kennard from Oakville, Ruth Kennard, Green Bay, and Flora Williams, of Phenix.

Mrs. Curtis Harvey entertained on Tuesday evening. The guests were Rev. and Mrs. Duling, Rev. and Mrs. H. M Wilson.

The social event of last week was a rook party given by Mrs. Moran. The guests reported a most enjoyable time.

Mrs. R. G. Franklin, who has been spending a few days with her sister, Mrs. Edna Woody, has returned home.

Miss Wilsie Thornton has been visiting in Richmond for the past two weeks.

Mrs. H. W. Wilson has as her guests her parents, Dr. and Mrs. Rawlins.

Mrs. E. L. Paulett who was called home on account of her father's death has returned home.

Mrs. H. T. Terry had as her guests Sunday the Hixburg teachers, Misses Mattie Moss and Eloise Vaughan also Messrs. Pat McPhillips and George West Booker.

Mrs. J. B. Wilson and daughter, Ellen, also spent Thanksgiving with Mrs. Terry.

Ray Carwile of Rustburg, has accepted a position at Franklin Bros.

Rev. W. B. Duling preached a most excellent sermon at Pamplin Sunday morning. His text was "We are well able". The balance of $700 on the Sunday School rooms was raised, but we are sorry the 1925 program has not been launched.

Miss Ida Glenn of Prospect, has been on a visit to her sister, Mrs. W. H. Ligon.

Buckingham

P. P. Glover has returned from Charlottesville, where he took an orphan boy who lives with him, to have his tonsils removed, but the doctor found that his throat was too much inflamed to operate.

Chapman Glover is just recovering from an attack of diphtheria and will return to his school at Buckingham.

E. D. Gregory has returned to Dillwyn after taking a northern trip.

Judge Hutcheson of Charlotte, is expected here to open December term of the Circuit Court this morning.

Game Warden C. H. Agee has a nice fund on hand to offer in prizes to those who kill the largest number of hawks, owls, crows, and other game-destroying pests. this sum was subscribed by the individual citizens of the county.

R. B. Hudgins of Drakes Branch, spent Thanksgiving with his home people.

Mrs. Blankenship of Dillwyn has returned from the hospital in Richmond.

H. M. White of Dillwyn, has had quite a severe spell of late, Mr. White was one of the first pioneers of the town of Dillwyn and at first the town was called White Hall when Mr. White and Mr. Hall owned practically all of the land on which the town is built.

Thomas B. Hall and J. P. Andrews are both at Dillwyn this season with the Co-operative Association,

P. A. Grigg and W. T. Snoddy are working with the open market at Dillwyn.

The lumber used during the Victor Lightburne meeting at Dillwyn is being sold for want of storage space.

Forest Guthrie, Jr., who has been engaged with the co-operative association branch of Richmond has been transferred to the Dillwyn market, which is near his old home.

P. P. Glover and Mrs. Glover contemplate a visit to Prospect Christmas to attend the reunion of the Haskins family, who are their nieces and nephew.

The Klu Klux Klan held a meeting at Dillwyn last week.

Rev. McAlister the new minister on the West Buckingham circuit seems to be making friends of those he meets.

Buckingham people are taking kindly to the candidacy of Hon. Harry Flood Byrd especially the close friends of his distinguished uncle, the late H. D. Flood of Appomattox.

Sara Bernhardt's Retort

"When Sara Bernhardt came to London for the first time she scorned all none other than the duke of Edinburgh. He was brought to the verge of blushless, and one day he asked Madame Bernhardt what had become of the 'h' in her Christian name (which she had never used). 'Oh!' was the reply, 'I 'ave lent it to a poor Englishman—my 'eart it so very much!'"—From the Light of Other Days.

Cramping Spells

"FOR MORE THAN A YEAR I had been in a very bad condition," says Mrs. R. E. Kimbrell, of Route 1, Dorchester, Texas. "I suffered with cramping spells which gave me bad pains in my back and sides. Sometimes I would have to catch at something. I would get so suddenly dizzy. . . . I had to quit doing my work. I tried many remedies, but none of them seemed to do me any good.

"In April I went up to Arkansas to visit my sister. . . . She said to me, 'Willie, if you are going to take anything, take Cardui. It will really help you.' I came home and told my doctor what she had said and he said I could not take any better tonic, so my husband immediately got me a bottle and I began it. . . . My case was a pretty tough one, I know, so I kept on faithfully. After the fourth bottle, I began to feel very much better, so much so that I was surprised at myself. I have taken six bottles now and I can truly say I feel like a different woman. . . . I feel fine and I owe it all to Cardui, which I took faithfully."
